South Australian teachers receive national awards

Four outstanding teachers who have made an impact in their local communities have been honoured with ASG National Excellence in Teaching Awards (NEiTA).

They are among 60 recipients to be awarded the prestigious honour from 120 finalists announced last month and more than 1100 nominations.

Now in its 22nd year, ASG NEiTA gives parents, grandparents, school boards and councils and committees of management the opportunity to formally thank and recognise outstanding and dedicated teachers, who are passionate about driving a world class education system and encouraging students to reach their full potential.

ASG NEiTA Chief Executive Officer, John Velegrinis says being recognised and highly esteemed by communities is an incredible achievement and the four recipients should be proud of their valued contributions.

"I congratulate all of our state and territory NEiTA recipients in the lead up to World Teachers' Day in Australia this Friday. There truly is widespread support, regard and appreciation for teachers, because receiving a quality education starts with these individuals who encourage and challenge students to stretch themselves beyond what they think is possible.

"From a recent survey we conducted—the ASG Parents Report Card 2015, we know that 89 per cent or nine out of 10 parents believe their children's teachers are very capable. This support for teachers doesn't surprise us and further validates the value of teachers in our society."

The awards are separated into early childhood, primary and secondary categories.

ASG NEiTA chairman, Allen Blewitt says the awards, which are the only community based awards in Australia, also reflect the broader impact inspirational and innovative teaching has on families, community and culture.

"As a professional in the education sector, I understand the importance of supporting teachers and acknowledging the crucial work they do, not just in classrooms, but in our communities, and recognising their contribution through channels such as ASG NEiTA."

New South Wales had 14 ASG NEiTA recipients, followed by 13 in Queensland, 10 for Victoria, eight for Western Australia (8), Tasmania (5), ACT (4), and two for the Northern Territory.

In March 2016, ASG NEiTA will announce the national award recipients. Professional development and project grants are available at the national award level, as well as one lucky teacher getting the opportunity to go to Space Camp in the United States.
