

2016 ASG National Excellence in Teaching Awards

State and Territory Award Recipient

Bronwyn Wearne

Lansdowne Crescent Primary School
Hobart, Tasmania

Bronwyn is committed to building her students' self-esteem in order to help them believe in their own ability to succeed. She works hard to develop positive relationships with her students, and believes that if a teacher is to meet the varied needs of their students, they must be prepared to invest time in getting to know them individually.

Aware of her impact as a teacher on a student's social cognition, sense of self and ability, Bronwyn is committed to nurturing talents and strengthening weaknesses. She implements a range of activities in her classroom; from creative pursuits to technology-based tasks and practical activities, designed to accommodate different learning styles.

Bronwyn also celebrates her students' achievements by changing their displays of work in the classroom and encouraging them to share these with their parents and siblings. She sets high expectations of her students and past pupils have gone on to receive science, art and mathematics awards. One of her students was short listed for the Young Creative Writer's Award, and invited Bronwyn along as a thank you for the love of writing she had instilled in him.

Bronwyn is committed to being a lifelong learner herself, so can continue to impart a love of learning to her students and help them maintain their enthusiasm for school.
