

Differences in aspirations and motivations by child gender

- My child is a high achiever
- My child is positively motivated by the curriculum
- My child knows how to juggle all of their commitments
- I often need to remind my child to study
- If needed, my child can join a homework club or study club to support their learning

Source: ASG Parents Report Card 2017