

We are inviting our members' children to participate in the ASG Literary Awards, which is part of the Young Australian Writers' Awards. ASG sponsors two awards in the poetry and short story categories and members' children are encouraged to submit an original short story or poem to ASG for the awards competition by 6 October 2017.

All entries are sent to the selection panel for the Young Australian Writers' Awards for judging and consideration for the ASG Literary Awards. Entries are assessed according to the child's age.

Conditions of entry

- All ASG members' children attending primary or secondary school in Australia are eligible to enter.
- All poetry is to be original and no word limit applies.
- Short stories are to be original.
- Please provide student's full name, age and postal address for correspondence relating to the awards.
- All entries to be received by 6 October 2017. Entries received after that date will automatically be considered for the 2018 awards.
- ASG reserves the right to publish all entries, with further publication rights assignable to the Young Australian Writer's Awards.
- The judge's decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into.
- Our preferred format for submission is an email to: youngwriters@asg.com.au
- If email is unavailable please submit your entry to:

ASG Literary Awards
23-35 Hanover St
OAKLEIGH VIC 3166

Please read the conditions of entry, as incomplete submissions that don't comply will not be considered for the awards.

All ASG students, whose entries are published in the Oz Kidz in Print magazine, will receive a Certificate of Participation and a small gift. The winning story and poem will be published in the Young Australian Art & Writers' Awards magazine, ASG's Scholastic—ASG's member newsletter, ASG's website, social media channels and collaterals.

The recipients of the ASG Literary Awards will be invited to Melbourne in end November to attend an awards ceremony.
